JAZZ MASTERS WEEK @ RESTAURANT WILLUMSEN

Restaurant Willumsen together with American singer & trombonist, Al Campos and legendary drummer, Norman Fearington present, "Jazz Masters Week."

Al Campos & Norman Fearington have both lived in Denmark for over 25 years. Throughout the years they both have worked with many of Denmark's finest artists, but for the first time ever, Al & Norman have invited some of Denmark's most distinguished jazz musicians to have a little fun and play some great jazz music right here at Restaurant Willumsen, "A truly authentic dinner jazz restaurant with a passion for jazz music" says Al.

Distinguished guests of honor: Besides great jazz music, excellent food & cocktails, Al Campos (vocals & trombone) and Norman Fearington (drums) have invited Ole Koch Hansen (piano), Mads Vinding (bass), Hugo Rasmussen (bass), Kjeld Lauritsen (B3 organ) and Bob Rockwell (sax) to join them during "Jazz Masters Week."

Al Campos will be singing songs from his current project called, "Al sings Ellington," with renditions of many classic jazz tunes by the Master American composer, Duke Ellington. He will also be singing other well known classics as well as some Groovin' Blues.

We look forward to seeing you at Jazz Masters Week!
